Grammar Assessment: PUNCTUATION (20 marks)

1. What is one great defect of our civilization one great defect of our civilization is that it does not know what to do with its knowledge science as we have seen has given us powers fit for the gods yet we use them like small kids for example we do not know how to manage our machine machines are very stern masters they must be fed with coal petrol oil and grease what happens if they do not get their meals they grow sulky and refuse to work burst with rage blow up spread ruin and destruction all around them a time may come when they rule us altogether just as we rule the animals may god bless the machines

2. When he was a boy franklin who afterwards became a distinguished statesman and philosopher learned his trade in the printing office of his brother who published a paper in boston some are born great some achieve greatness and some have greatness thrust upon them
